- At the tournament location for only 4 EUR / 100 CZK per person and night. Sleeping on comfortable camp-beds with foam mattresses and pillows, you are only requested to bring your own sleeping bag. Toilets, showers and kitchen available. A supermarket (Albert) is just around the corner, open daily 7:00–21:00.

How to get there

- By plane – take the bus no. 119 from the Letiste Ruzyně (Letiste Václava Havla) bus stop at the airport to Dejvicka metro station, then by metro line A to Jiriho z Podebrad. From there it's several minutes of walk downhill to the tournament place. You can get a free map at the airport. If you don't feel like walking, you can take a tram from Jiriho z Podebrad to Vinohradska trznice. The whole trip should take 45 to 60 minutes. One public transport ticket costs 32 CZK (about 1.3 EUR) and is valid for 75/90 minutes (weekdays/weekend) with unlimited transferring between buses, trams, metro and even some trains, which means you can get from the airport to almost anywhere in Prague for just 1.3 EUR.
- By car – please use Google maps directions.
Warning: Parking in Prague can be tricky. Someone's car got towed on multiple occasions during tournaments. It is ALWAYS PROHIBITED to park at the blue-lined parking places. You can park at orange-lined and green-lined zones, they are free on weekends.
